PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, good citizenship and real patriotism are essential qualities for every American in this day of world unrest; and

WHEREAS, it is altogether appropriate that we pause amidst the hurry of everyday living to give thanks for the blessings and privileges which we American citizens enjoy under the Constitution of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States in the interests of developing a greater appreciation of the benefits of the American form of government have undertaken the sponsorship of the observance of Loyalty Day on May 1st, 1952;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 1st, 1952, as in South Dakota, and urge all citizens to observe the day according to the dictates of their own beliefs and to promote stimulating programs at which our citizens may reaffirm their faith in the institutions of American democracy.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 30th day of April, 1952.
